

I am amateur Radio Licensee KA9CAR, and I passed the 20 wpm test to get my license. I often use Morse telegraphy.

I do not think Morse code should be a requirement for an amateur radio license.

We should consolidate license classes (and privileges) of current licensees to conform with any new reduced requirements.